-- Report on the open seminar on
"Japan's Proposal on Bilateral Offset Credit Mechanism" --

Three key ministries involved in Japan's international policymaking on climate change, namely the Ministry of Foreign Affairs (MOFA), the Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry (METI) and the Ministry of the Environment (MOE) jointly organized an open seminar on 24 August 2012 with the view to disseminating information on Japan's ongoing efforts to set up its Bilateral Offset Credit Mechanism (BOCM).

The event began with a presentation given by the representatives of each ministry, which was followed by a panel discussion of four experts from the private sector. Over 300 people attended the seminar, reflecting their keen interests in the issue.
